

Welcome to the Department of Housing and Residence Life!

On behalf of everyone in the Department of Housing and Residence Life, welcome to our professional staff recruitment page. We are thrilled that you are considering embarking on the next chapter of your professional journey with us.

By joining our community, you will unlock a door that will offer you a world of exciting new experiences, professional development, and meaningful connections with other professionals in the realm of higher education. It is our goal that by joining our team, you will encounter individuals that will encourage you, support you, challenge you and inspire you.

As you transition into your new role, there are many team members who are available to you for guidance and support. We recognize that transitions can be difficult, and we want our new team members to know that they are not alone! All of our dedicated and caring staff are committed to making your experience here as successful and fulfilling as possible.

Our department is comprised of a diverse community of individuals who are excited to transform lives by serving our students, and we are always energized by the opportunity to add more great people to our team. I believe that your time here will provide some of the most meaningful experiences of your career. In Housing and Residence Life, we make it our mission to facilitate and maintain high-quality learning environments that support the academic success and personal growth of our residential students. We could not achieve that mission without a great team of professionals. As a member of our department, you will play a critical role in helping our students live and learn together while creating bonds that will last a lifetime.

Thank you for visiting our recruitment page. We hope that you will continue to consider opportunities to join our team

Sincerely,

Phillip A. Sullivan
Associate Director for Residential Living
